

We value the importance of protecting personal data.

We process all personal data with due care and in compliance with the highest security standards. In processing personal data, we comply with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Vewoet B.V. is responsible for all data processed on its systems. This Privacy Statement serves to explain what types of personal data we collect and use, and for what purpose.

Communication

If you send us an email or other communications, we may store these messages on our system. The types of personal data we request from you are restricted to your name, position/job title, and contact details such as your email address and telephone number. This enables us to process your questions and respond to your requests. The data is stored on our own secure servers. We will not merge this data with any other personal data in our possession.

Recording and Processing Data

We retain and use solely personal data provided by you directly or of which it is apparent on provision that the data is being shared with us. Any data which is no longer necessary will be deleted. You have the option to request access to or modification of your data, to object to the use of your data, request that use of your data be restricted, or that your data be deleted. Please see the 'Contact Details' section for further information.

Protection of Personal Data

We apply strict security procedures, including to prevent unauthorized individuals from gaining access to personal data.

Newsletter

If you complete a contact form on our website to sign up for our newsletter, the details you submit to us will be stored as long as you are included on our subscriber list. You can modify your details at any time or unsubscribe at the following link: <https://vetipak.emailprovider.nl/memberforms/edit/standalone/form/?a=o0gmbf2b&l=vbakdsmkzj&m=0ueg84buec&c=mb7qrhp8t9>. Your details will be immediately deleted once you have unsubscribed.

Website Usage and Visitor Details

General visitor details are tracked on our website. Specifically, your computer's IP address may be registered and used for statistical analysis of visitor behavior and website usage on our website. We attempt to anonymize this data to the extent possible.

Use of Cookies and Google Analytics

We use cookies when providing electronic services. Cookies are small, simple text files stored on your computer's hard drive. We use temporary cookies, which contain no personal data and are used solely to facilitate the usage of the website. We use Google Analytics to track how visitors use our website. The information gathered in this manner is transferred to Google, including your computer's IP address, and subsequently stored on its servers. Please consult Google's privacy policy for further information, along with the specific Google Analytics privacy policy. Google uses this information to track how our website is used, to be able to provide us with reports on the website, and to be able to provide its advertisers with information on the effectiveness of their campaigns. Google may share this information with third parties if it is required by law to do so, or to the extent that such third parties process the information on behalf of Google. These processes are beyond the control of Vewoet B.V. We have not granted Google permission to use the Analytics information collected for the purpose of other Google services.

Third-Party Websites

This Statement does not apply to any third-party websites linked to this website. We recommend that you read the privacy statements of these websites before using these sites.

Information Shared with Third Parties

Information is not shared with any third parties, unless this is required for a specific purpose. Data processing agreements have been signed with all third parties with which we cooperate or which have access to our data in some way or other; these agreements fulfill the statutory requirements. In some cases, the information may be shared within the company. Our employees are required to respect the confidentiality of your data.

Amendments to this Privacy Statement

We reserve the right to amend this Privacy Statement. We recommend that you regularly check this website to ensure that you are aware of these amendments.

Reviewing and Amending Your Data

If you have any questions regarding our privacy policy or regarding access to, modifications to, objections to, restriction of the use of, or processing or deletion of your data, please contact us at:
